Pursuant to MCR 7.205(D)(2), in lieu of granting the application for leave to appeal, the Court REMANDS to the circuit court who shall determine whether, in his April 26, 2007 sentence for probation violation, defendant received proper credit for any good time he was awarded during the jail term he served as a term of probation for his underlying conviction. People v Resler, 210 Mich App 24; 532 NW2d 907 (1995). If the court determines that defendant was not given the proper credit, it shall amend the judgment of sentence to reflect the proper credit. If the court determines that defendant was given the proper credit, the sentence shall stand.

We do not retain jurisdiction.
